Rules for booking Team Study Rooms And Individual Carrels

From 15 September 2026 to 30 June 2027, i.e. during the winter and summer semesters, only NTK Patrons from partner institutions (CTU, UCT, CZU and IOCB) may book Team Study Rooms and Individual Carrels. Outside this period, study rooms may be booked by all NTK patrons, including members of the public. To make a booking, please use the NTK Reservation System.

Indian Summer In the Library Or Outdoors

As well as Wi-Fi and printed resources, the NTK also offers its users a range of electronic resources, a large proportion of which are accessible remotely by logging in to the NTK.

On the platforms of publishers such as ProQuest, JSTOR, Elsevier, EBSCO, Springer, Taylor & Francis, Wiley, De Gruyter and Emerald, amongst many others, you will find high-quality peer-reviewed articles from a wide range of academic disciplines. In addition, many platforms also include e-books available 24/7. If you're looking for other online resources at the NTK, you might find this guide useful.

The NTK offers remote access to almost 70 million peer-reviewed academic articles in full text online and over 1 million e-books via the new Primo discovery service. Search results can be filtered by keywords, and queries can be refined further using the facets on the left-hand side of the screen.

We invite you to stop by the 4th floor between sectors A and B, where a selection of printed and electronic books is on display for European Mobility Week. You are welcome to browse the titles or borrow any of them to take home.

Do You Use the Zotero Or Mendeley Citation Managers?

On our website, you can download citation styles for these managers in accordance with the ČSN ISO 690:2022 standard. Styles are available for citing using the author-date method, numerical references and footnotes, in both Czech and English.

Has Something Broken? Come And Fix It With Us

The NTK Polytechnic Workshop invites you to another repair day! You haven't registered, but would you like to come and have a look? Has something broken, but you can't fix it yourself? Come and see us on Tuesday 3 November, any time between 3 pm and 8 pm! We'll help you out. Read more for further details.
